Dear Dad,
well, just I must say we missed "Mucho Macho" - the Marching Band this year. Who knows when we'll see again. I could cook back and say what we'd had such good times, but right now the future is important. Since years ago, another year, I hope that Jenn Jen these years to come will be such a success.

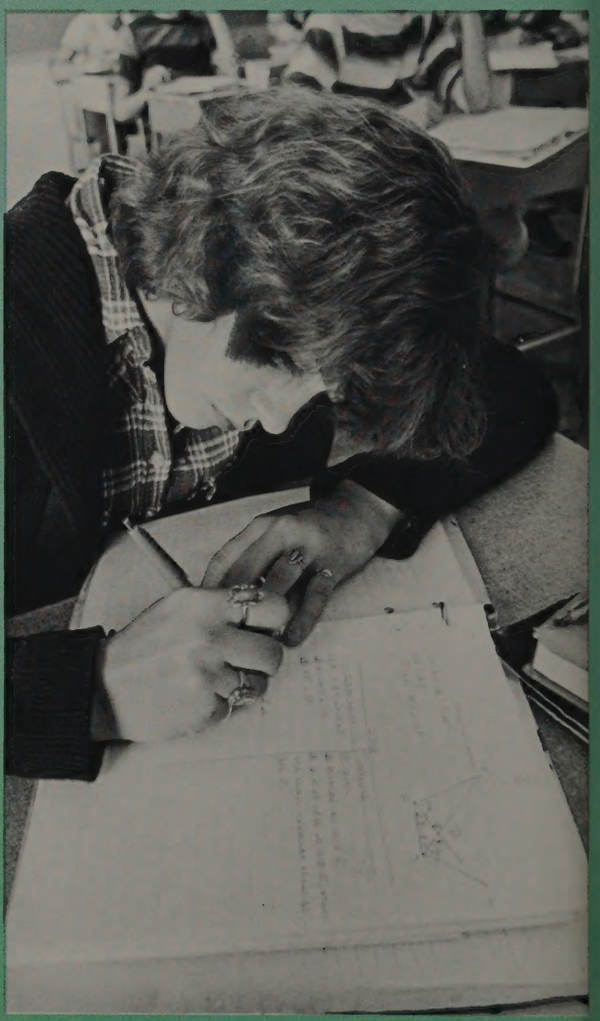

I still find it hard to believe that I'm going to high school. Oh, the prestigious schools. Best of luck always & enjoy yourself although I know you will always do.

Love,
Katrina

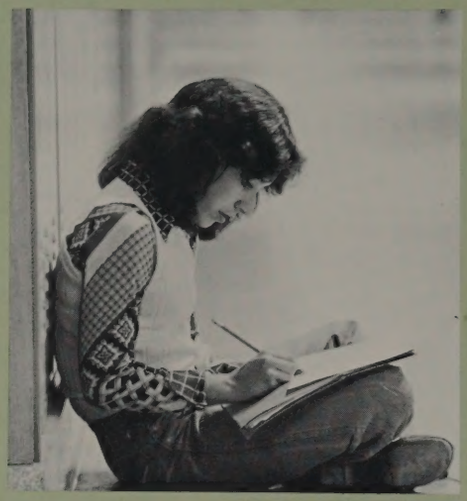

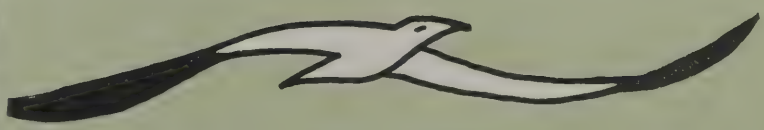

Canon

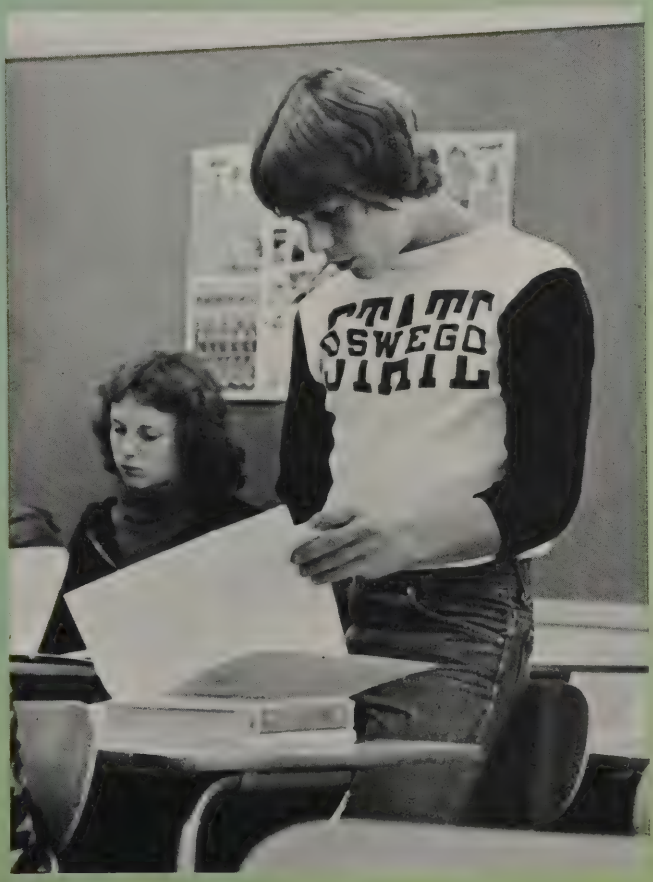

Mr David Mordy, Esq.

It has been brought to my attention that our school-time fun has just about terminated. I am deeply grieved. I hope that, though our educational partnership is over, we will still retain our keen sense of friendship.

Mike

P.S. Good luck and don't stay sober too long — it kills brain cells!

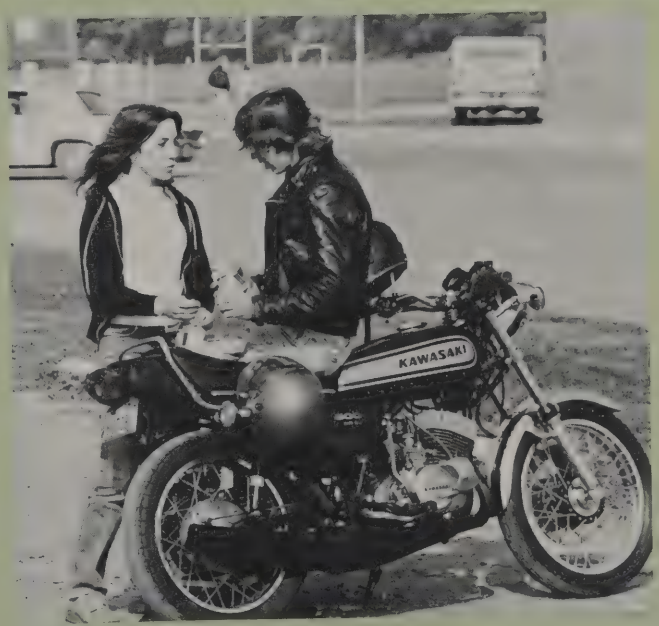

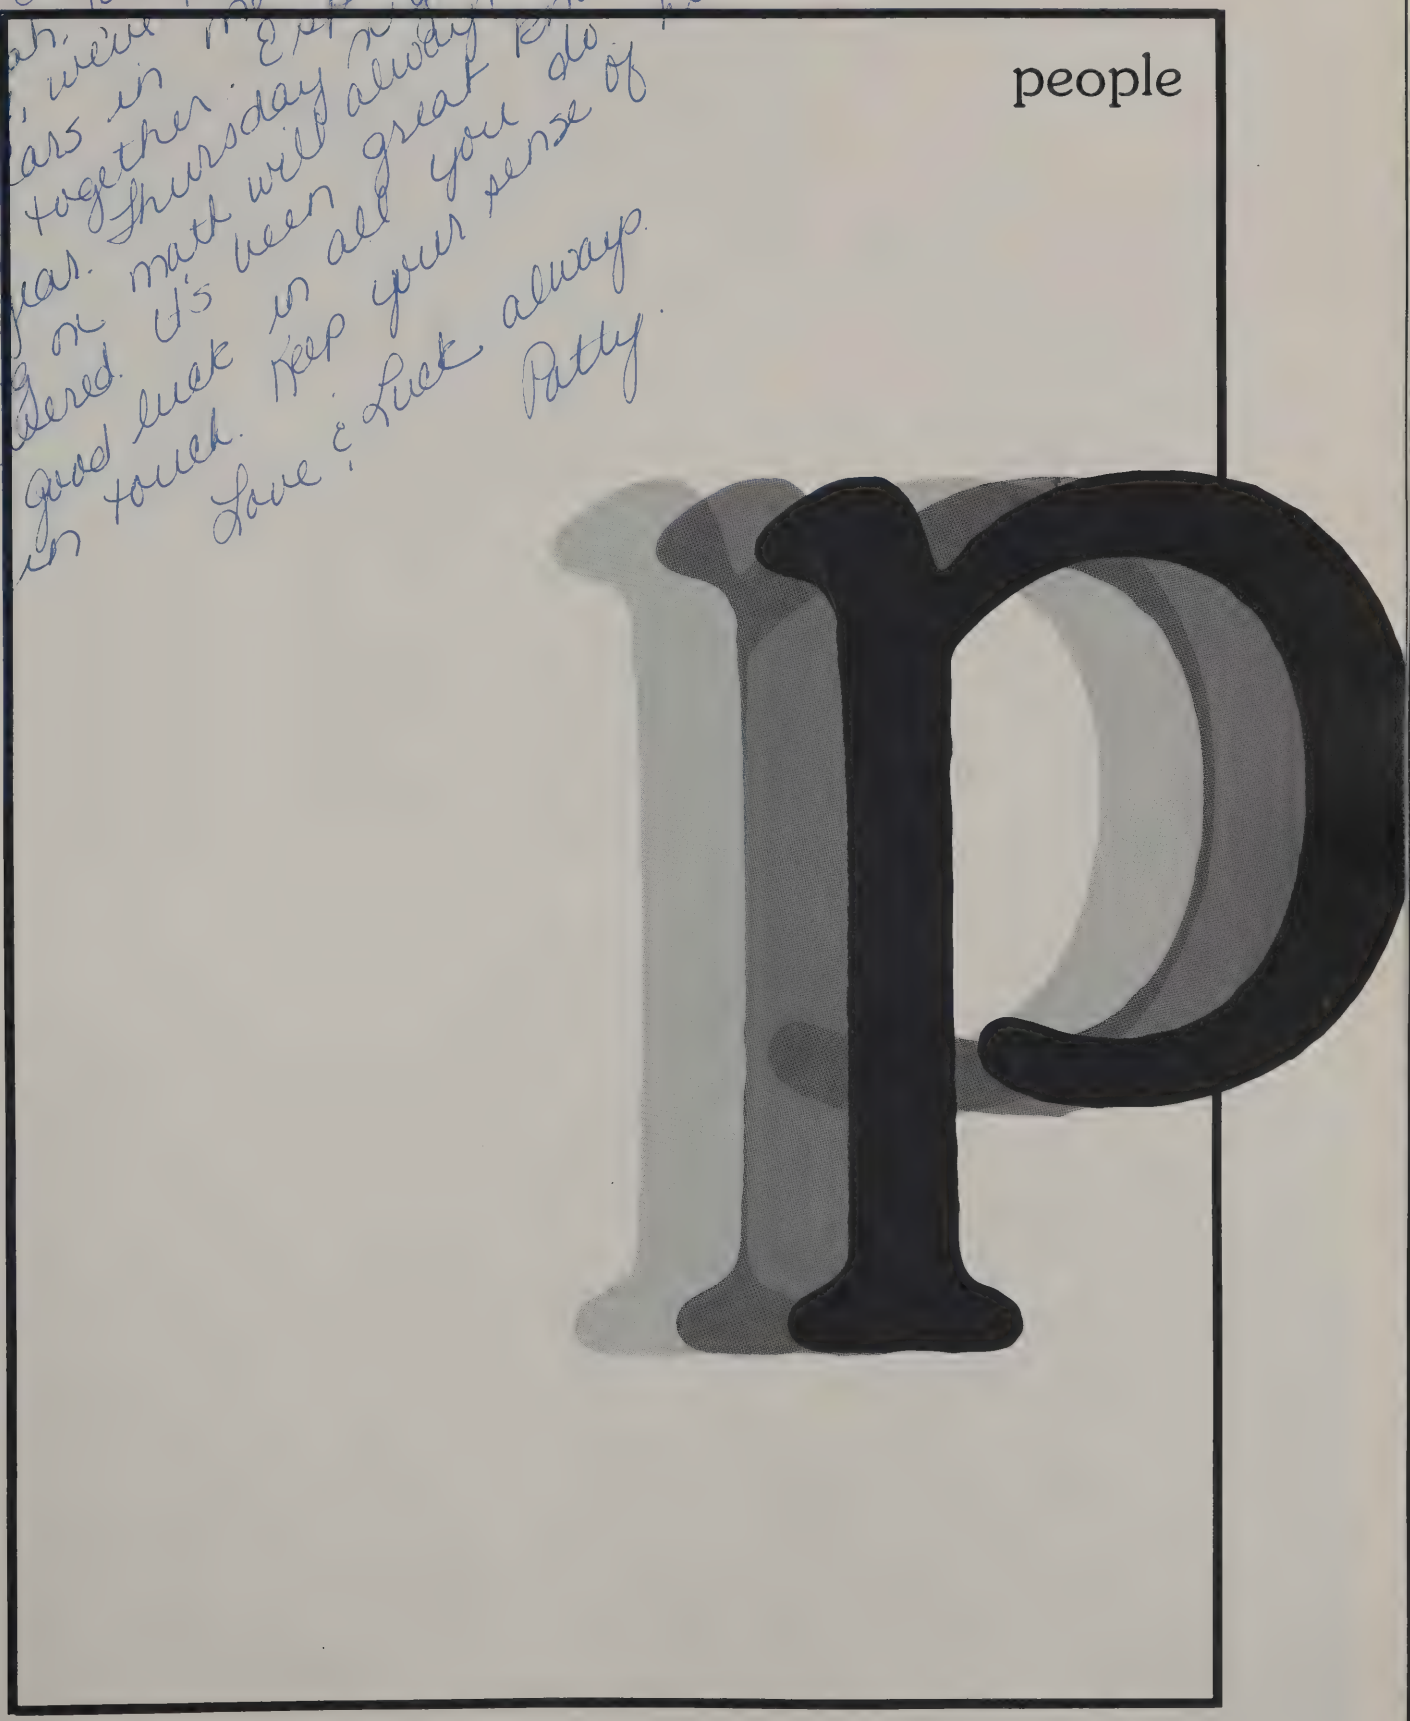

KAWASAKI

Dear Dave,
Well, what is there to say? Besides it's almost over, blah, blah. Anyway, we've had a really good 4 years in math & english classes together. Especially this year. Thursday is math will always be remembered. It's been great knowing you- Good luck in all you do. Keep your sense of humor & smile always. Keep in touch. Love & Luck always. Patty.

David,
what can I write to sum
up 4 years of High school together? I'll always remember how close we were in 6th grade and the Halloween costume parties with lunchbags of nacho cheese. Dark horse I, I will be my fondest memory of high school. I'm sure we'll both remember all the fantastic nights with flashpots, strobe lights, and last minute whatever 3 hour rehearsals. I know you will be a success
you pursue. Have fun in college. Enjoy life.

Love,
Deborah

Dear Dave,

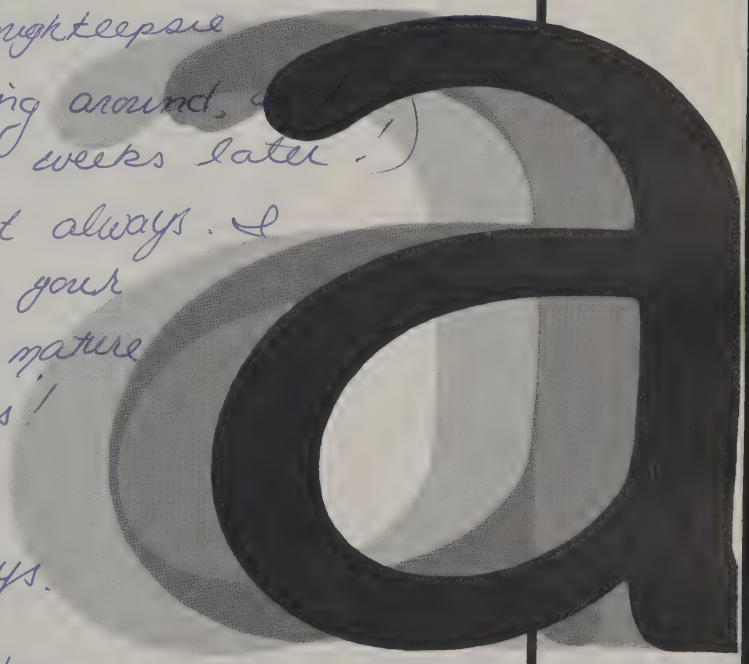

It's been a very interesting year. I find it hard to believe that we actually finished this book on time and did a good job!

Dave, I have to thank you for teaching me the trucks of the trade. It took me a while to get going - but it was worth it. I'll always remember your little visits after work and the quick trips to Poughkeepsie (To think Kevin had us rushing around, & our deadlines weren't 'till weeks later.!)

I wish you the best always. I know you'll do well. With your confidence and easy-going nature you'll never have problems!

Best wishes for success
& happiness always.

Love,
Dorothy.

CVS

Through the Community Volunteer Service program, volunteer placements are made within the school district and the community. Student participants are eligible to receive academic credit for donating their free time as: tutors, classroom assistants, library and AV helpers, office and department assistants, and Phys. Ed. helpers. Volunteers also assist in programs for both mentally and physically handicapped children and adults.

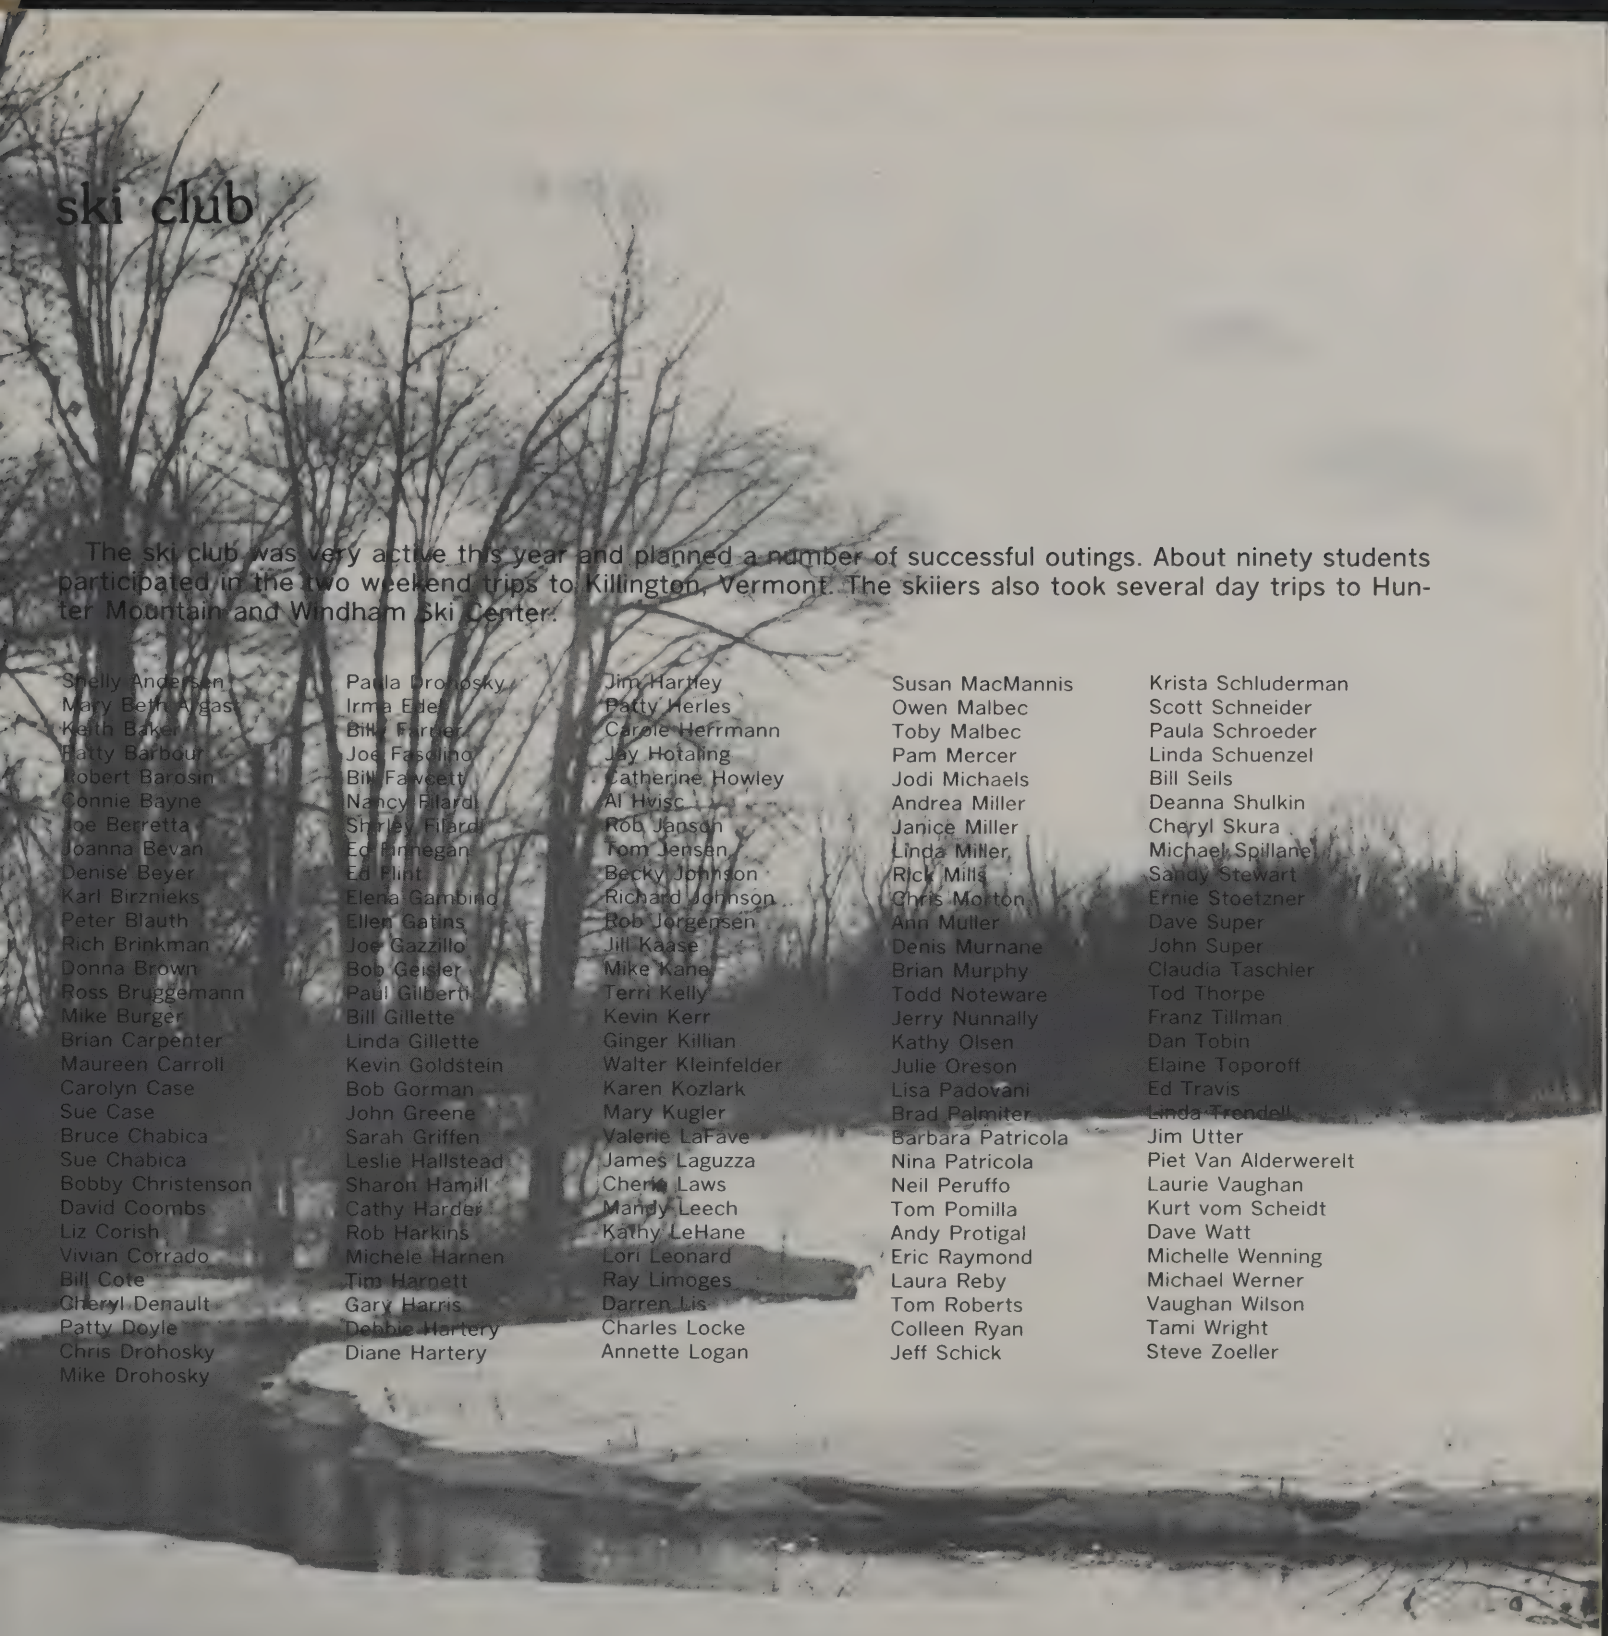

In addition to in-school placements, AHS students have also been involved in programs affiliated with: the American Cancer Society, the Association for Retarded Children, Rehabilitation Programs, the Freedom Plains Nursery School, Vassar and St. Francis Hospitals, the YMCA, the Special Olympics Program, the SPCA, and the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

student exchange

In March of 1978 Arlington hosted twelve students and two teachers from Dorchester in Dorset of England. They stayed in the homes of AHS students, and each received his own academic schedule to follow. In July, eleven AHS students lived and went to school with the same students they hosted. In England, many sidetrips included visits to Oxford, Stratford, Coventry, London, Bath, Cheddar Gorge, Wales, and the Cotswolds. Many of the American students also participated in an archeological dig, enjoyed an open air performance of A Midsummer Night's Dream, sailed in Weymouth Harbour on the coast, and spent Sundays brass rubbing. 1. ring dance

Once again Arlington has the mammoth ring that was retired several years ago. Revived by the class of 1980, this ring serves as the stage from which the rings are passed out. This year's Ring Dance was also the first to which the entire student body was invited. Judging from the reactions of the students, it was a great success.

halloween blast

This Halloween the school witnessed an event never before seen at Arlington, a Holloween Blast featuring the talents of Batteries* Not*Included. Sponsored by the senior class, the event featured several unique aspects. Those in the audience were asked to wear costumes with the promise of a one dollar rebate at the door. It was a memorable evening.

varsity football

This year's football team, under the direction of coaches Murphy, DeRosa, and Johnson, was one of the strongest seen in many years. They placed second behind Kingston, their only loss in an otherwise undefeated season.

Both offensively and defensively, the team was extremely powerful. In addition to Billy Johnson, a league leader with an average 8.1 yards per carry, the entire team can be congratulated for the fine showing they made this season.

[guess what i've got holed up in my closet -- satin shorts, hot pink Nikes and an Adidas t-shirt -- as they say in French quelle -class] now that you know my inner most secret -- on with this...

Dear Dave, what can I say i'm at a loss for words, i'm so moved that you asked me to sign your book! [how's that for typicality?!] ['how's this for a split?...  !] I think I know what you're going to become when you "find yourself" but i'm not going to tell you - I'll let it be a surprise! nice of me eh?! well... [how profound] oh well..... this profundity is getting to me! have fun on the foothall team next year! oops i let it slip!

In its second year at Arlington, swimming is fast becoming a very popular sport. At present, the only factor working against the team is its lack of depth. With swimmers like Jeff Coffin, Jay Briggs, Ann Aronowitz, and Henry Park, Arlington wins most individual events, but because the team is small, we don't have the swimmers necessary to win the meets.

Big Dave,

We're funny guys. sophomores

We know what's funny and we know what to do with things that are funny.

Things that aren't funny— we don't know what to do with them. We can't handel situations that aren't funny. We're hysterical idiots when we're not funny.

Snerily, though Dave, ~~we~~ we're good friends and blah, blah, the same old bull. Writing in a yearbook doesn't mean a heck of a lot in the long run. ~~As a matt~~ I could have written something witteé, but, as a matter of fact, I hate to waste my talent in year books when I could be wasting ~~in~~ it in a dark alley or in the ladies room. Why? That's what I ~~always~~ said. Good luck, you'll make it as this or that. Because. we are intectually elite, I really don't have to write anything nice, because we, as many know, are self-sustaining organisms of success + virtue. And if anyone tells you otherwise, well, Kick him or scratch him. Real hard + good.

Don

Being divided into two halves by the split sessions, the sophomore class has one problem that neither the juniors or seniors have: getting together the people to have a meeting. But under the leadership of class officers Jolee Bevan, Patty Herles, Greg Luna, and Ginger Killian they have managed to work around it. In order to raise money for future class activities, they have done everything from selling stationery to having bake sales. They seem to be off to a good start.

Well FREDDIE,

ITS BEEN A LONG WAR AND WE'VE LOST MANY VALIANT SOLDIERS ALO.. OH SHIT, WRONG YEAR. REMEMBER TO BEND TOWARDS THE DOME OF SOUND WHENEVER AND DISORGANIZE!!!

BUT ROEBUCK AND SEARSILY,

BY THE TIME YOU ~~[illegible]~~READ THIS YOU'LL BE BLIND OR IN LAS VEGAS. AH-AH. (HUMOR IN REVERSE!!.) REALLY, THOUGH, I CAN'T COMPETE, EVEN JUMPING OUT OF MY SEAT, WITH FUNNY GUYS LIKE YOU AND DON. HELL, I'm ONLY MICKEY FUNNY WHEN I'M NOT FUNNY.

BUT AS I ALWAYS SAY AT DINNER,

O' MEGA ME A PLATO LAMBDA!!!

ARE YOU FUNNY OR GREEK???
OR CHAUCER???
OR MOLLY HEISTER???

WHAT??? WELL, SHE WAS JUST A PASSING FANCY. LOOKED PRETTY FANCY PASSING BY JUST NOW.

SWARTHMORE & PENN: NEXT DOOR NEIGHBORS: THEY HAVE LIBRARY SEX ALL THE TIME. SERIOUSLY, GOT TO REMAIN IN TOUCH EVEN IF YOU GOT ANOTHER SOUND MAN FOR THE CHANCE.

I'LL BE LIKE A FRIGHTENED WOMAN, I'LL KILL YOU ALL, ONE BY ONE UNTIL "BATTERIES" DREEKNOT.

WELL, DON'T TAKE ANY WOODEN (LITTLE) CATS, SPLINTERS ARE HELL!!!

TROTSKY.

Led by class officers Jaci Montano, Robin Wray, Andy Smyth, and Becky Bunnell, this year's junior class worked hard to raise money for their Junior Prom in May and their Senior Prom next year. This year's Ring Dance, the first one to be open to the entire student body was a huge success, financially and excitement-wise. Most of all, it helped prepare the class for a great year.

Dear Sally, You are too much Good really. Say too much. I'd like you to know in this space, that I'm glad we've been working on the yearbook staff this year
I had the opportunity to get at least a little and I thank you for the opportunity to get at least a little worked. Like we had a lot of classes together this year, in and generally I guess it's been a long way wrong, you seems like we had a lot of fun in them. Unless I'm at swatting fly or Jai or whatever you do. Good luck look me up and I'll show you around. Have a nice summer and a happy future,

Richard Jones

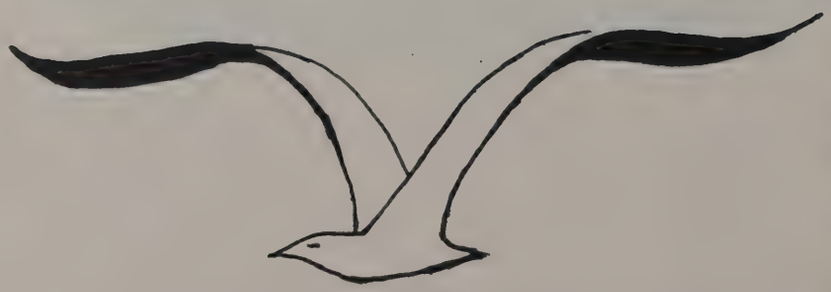

seniors

Under the direction of class officers Charlie Barone, David Moody, Raymo Patterson, and Regina Smyth, this year's senior class has done its share of fund-raising. Other than the traditional Senior - Faculty Basketball Game and the Senior Follies, they sponsored the highly successful Halloween Blast and are planning yet another Battery extravaganza.

Dear Dave —

Ode To Creighton:

Well, it's over - the thrill is gone... there's no use in trying to hang on...

It's been a good, no let me repeat that - it's been a great year! Or rather that we called start a great friendship! There are so many things that are buzzing around in my mind - I wish I could collect my thoughts in a big heap and sort them chronologically... but, needless to say, I can't. So, I want to say thanx - for everything - the good times; and even the crazy times! :) Always remember me with a grin on your face and a smile in your eyes! Keep in touch with me too.

Love always

Pris (X)
